

The Seven Fields of the Saints

The pleasing will of God upon us is very obvious. All the conditions and “meetings” that the children of God have are unanimously arranged by God. And in all these abound God’s eternal and abundant plans. The Word of God teaches us how to discover them. The spirit of God also convicts us at all times. As long as we are willing to seek and obey, God’s perfect will shall be revealed to us immediately. Thereby it enables us to enjoy our walk with Him and to have the joy of fulfilling His eternal plan.

1. All the concerns of God are upon the daily fields of His children

- 7) When the children of God pray, all these hidden mysteries will be revealed

2. God had planned “seven fields” for all His children
